

THE MUSICIANS

Michelle Velvin is a Wellington based harpist, composer and teacher. She has a passion for performing New Zealand compositions and writing new music reflecting her life in New Zealand. She was a winner of the NZ Performance Harp Competition and has created the Wellington Harp Orchestra. In her composing life, Michelle has had her solo soprano saxophone piece "When I was a bird" (based on the text by Katherine Mansfield) premiered at the Melbourne International Saxophone Festival.

Bridget Douglas hails from Dunedin. She studied at Victoria University of Wellington and followed this with studies in the USA with the assistance of a Fulbright Graduate Award and Creative NZ Music Scholarship. While in the USA, Bridget won several competitions including the New York Flute Club Young Artist's Competition and an Artists International Award, including a recital at Carnegie Hall, New York. On her return to NZ, she joined the NZSO where she is currently Section Principal Flute and an Artist Teacher at the New Zealand School of Music.
