

MICHAEL ENDRES

German Pianist Michael Endres performs worldwide as soloist and chamber music partner. He graduated from Juilliard School in New York and studied with Peter Feuchtwanger in London. His extensive prizewinning discography of 35 CD's includes the prestigious Diapason d'Or (France) which he was recently awarded for the third time and the Choc du Musique which he has won twice.

His solo recordings include cycles of the complete sonatas by Mozart, Schubert, the complete works of Ravel and Gershwin. The New York Times wrote: "the performances with pianist Michael Endres were revelatory" and the Gramophone Magazine stated: "he is an outstanding Schubert interpreter".
